* International Politics since the End of W.W.Ist:-

W.W.Ist has shown that U.S. is going to emerge as the Next Hegemonic Power. Hence, it will play the most decisive / consequential role in international politics in time to come. It also indicated decline of :-

a) Britain

b) European Powers (France, Germany)

It means 20th Century will be American Century. World will come under "Pax Americana".
(पैक्स)

US tried to offer a new Normative Vision of the World Order.

Also called Post Westphalian Vision / Liberal International Order.

Post Westphalian means moving away from State Centric. It means shifting towards:-

a) People Centric (Human Rights, Democracy)

b) Multilateralism (International Institution)

↳ it means working collectively.

The first example of multilateralism was League of Nations (LONs).

LON was based on the Liberal view of International Politics.

Q) Who gave the vision of Liberal International Order?

Q) What are the prominent components of the vision?

This vision was given formally for the first time by the then U.S. President - Woodrow Wilson, in his speech to U.S. Congress known as 14 points speech.

Q) Why the vision of New World Order?

- He held that West Phalan World Order is prone to war.

Woodrow Wilson justifies the vision of New World Order as it will establish / Conducive for Peace.

The destruction in the first world war compelled state not to take wars lightly but you'll have to take peace seriously.

Q) What was the Real Purpose?

The Real Purpose was to establish U.S. Hegemony.

It means U.S. will dictate the terms / How relations have to be conducted. Since the terms are dictated by U.S.A., U.S. will be the biggest beneficiaries.

• Right Now

After U.S., India is the biggest Advocate of Liberal World Order.

* Components of the Liberal World Order:-

i) Multilateralism.

ii) Freedom of Trade & Commerce (Free Market Economy).

iii) Freedom of Navigation.

iv) Protection of Democracy & Human Rights.

It was U.S.A's Vision that League of Nations came into existence. Since, U.S.A was not the member of LONS, the vision of New World Order collapsed.

During Inter-War Period, States kept on following Protectionist / Merchantilist Economic Policies. Instead of strengthening LONS they remain engaged in Arms Race.

International Community remain Spectator of violation of Human Rights. There was no action to arrest the emergence of Totalitarian Systems (Nazism, Fascism) - Failure of Democracy.

World witnessed another¹ war. W.W.IInd ended with the display of American Power. The use of Nuclear Weapon on Hiroshima & Nagasaki.

This established U.S.A. as the single Super Power.

Though for a very short-time. Very soon U.S.S.R also developed the Nuclear Weapon. This established Strategic Bi-polarity. It means the world got divided b/w the two blocks. Each led by a Superpower. The status of other states was like - Satellites. It means they don't have real Sovereignty.

- i) Russia Spoiled the U.S. dream of A^{single} Hegemonic Actor.
- ii) At the same time, India Emerged as a Challenger to the U.S. Hegemony, though India Challenged the Hegemony of both the Superpowers.

India suggested a third way out — remaining Non-Aligned.

The Post W.W.IInd led to the establishment of New World order known as Cold War.

Features of Cold War World Order! —

- i) As a descriptive term — Bipolar.
- ii) As a Normative term — it was the continuation of West Phalian world order but in a modified sense. Hence, it describe the Post - West Phalian. West Phalian in modified form.
(Continuation of Old with modification).

↳ It means world order based on Power Politics (Arms Race).

Cold War Represented the failure of the Vision of New World Order / Liberal World Order.

Cold War World Order was symbolised with Nuclear Arms Race.

Cold War World Order collapsed in 1991, giving rise to Post - Cold War World Order.

↳ It means where some of the features of Cold War World Order ended. For e.g. — Bi-polarity ended, World became Unipolar, There was a growth of Multilateralism, Free - Trade.

Q) Whether Post - Cold War World Order was Entirely different from the Cold - War World Order?

No, it was not entirely different & there was a continuity but Continuity with Change.

Continuity means the Old Conflicts with remains.

Though got frozen for some time.

E.g.:- Korean Crisis, Taiwan Crisis, Crisis b/w Armenia & Azerbaijan, the tensions b/w India & China, Tensions b/w China & Japan, Crisis b/w Middle East.

At the same time, there has been a Phenomenal Growth in context of International Co-operation.

For Eg.:- Establishment of WTO, UNFCCC,

It is said that, In International Politics, "The more world changes, the more it remains same."

The defining element of Post - Cold War World Order till 2001 was Unipolar World / U.S. Hegemony.

Challenges to U.S. Hegemony:-

i) Attack on World Trade Centre.

What is the Uniqueness?

First Attack on U.S. mainland ever.

ii) 2007 - 08 Global Financial Crisis. It marked the Emergence of BRICS Countries.

iii) Xi - ^{Xing Ping} Zinping Coming to Power. (2012)

iv) 2013 - Xi - Unveiled his China Dream.

↳ To end the Humiliation faced by the Great Nation for two Centuries.

The biggest Humiliation is Chinese territory under Foreign Occupation.

Biggest Humiliation :- Taiwan, South China Sea. (S.C.S)

S.C.S is the Chinese lake. It means these are the territorial lake of China. But imperialist Power declared it as International Water (High Sea).

Since, then World is witnessing the New Cold War / Cold War 2.0 b/w U.S. & China.

What is the World Order today ?

— "Cold War 2.0" —

Cold War :-

When there is no direct Military Confrontation b/w the two major powers. It means the tension's does not turn into the full fledged Military Confrontation or Hot War.
